

Brief

- Composition is enhanced when connections are made with concept.
- The changing local or global environment can influence the way an artist responds and interprets subject matter

You have been commissioned by the UN to create a print to feature in an exhibition on the May 3rd 2017 the work will be judged by a panel, and prizes will be awarded.

Commission: You have to produce a piece of work that reflects your investigation into one of the global goals. This is not a poster competition.

Your work will be autonomous and self directed. This means that you will be given workshops in different skills, but you will be in charge of the decisions about your learning and will be making work that reflects your personal style.

Workshops will include:

- Etching (Intaglio)
- Monoprinting
- Lino Print (Relief print)
- Photoshop

The 'Printmaking Classroom' has been created for this unit and you will help to resource it.

The world is a strange place and you may not always feel like you have a voice but you do. Art is a way for you to make a positive impact; a way for you to show your ideas and have an influence over others. You need to make sure that your impact is positive. Promote positive change.

Resolution- idea, material and composition are coherent.

Skills- Your manipulation of the media is considered and intelligent with an excellent application.
